

Organizers Index

In this occasional feature, Views introduces the newest members of the Center's board of directors.

Scot Nakagawa

Weeks until becoming grants manager for A Territory Resource: 2

Months on staff with Western Prison Project: 18

Years with social change organizations: 25

States & U.S. jurisdictions traveled to as an activist: 51

Years with partner Jon: 10

Dogs who live in our house: 5

Number of dogs it feels like live in our house: 50

Millions of U.S. residents incarcerated: 2.1

Ratio of people incarcerated in U.S.: 1:37

Percentage of whites using illegal drugs: 7

Percentage of blacks using illegal drugs: 7

Ratio of black arrests to white arrests on drug charges in Seattle: 22:1

Percentage of U.S. population that is black: 13

Percentage of prison population that is black: 46

Percentage of Hawaii population that is Native Hawaiian: <20

Percentage of Hawaii prison population that is Native Hawaiian: >70

María González Mabbutt

Summers spent traveling from Texas home to pick crops with family: 5

Summers spent doing field work after moving to Idaho: 4

Years in farmworker advocacy positions: 13

Colleges attended before graduating cum laude: 3

College scholarship dollars helped to generate for children of farm workers: >5,000

Political campaigns worked on: 15

Years in leadership with Idaho Latino Vote: 4

Percent of Idaho population that is Latino: 8.5

Percent of Idaho's 35,000 eligible Latino voters who actually voted in 2000: 14

Percent who voted in 2002 after Idaho Latino Vote's efforts: 25

Years as co-host of TV program Nuestra Voz: 3

Court proceedings interpreted through personal translation business: 1,000s

Major leadership awards: 8

Age of youngest of 5 daughters: 5

Number of grandchildren (so far): 2

Ivan Inger

Years spent promoting social and economic justice practices in the health and mental health fields: 39

As a medical school faculty member: 12

Through Head Start programs: 10

As co-founder of Portland Family Studies Institute, a nonprofit providing training to public sector therapists and low cost therapy to families: 18

Percent of time now spent working for pay: 50

Percent of time spent participating in progressive philanthropy in the Northwest: 25

Years served as chair of A Territory Resource fundraising committee: 4

Millions of dollars to be raised through chairing endowment campaign for the American Family Therapy Academy, a progressive mental health organization dedicated to human rights and equal access to services for all — the only such organization in the country: 1

Millions of dollars helped to raise for social justice causes thus far: 10

Ways to describe self (66 year old, white male, husband, father, grandfather, brother, brother-in-law, uncle, cousin, friend, acquaintance, psychologist, family therapist, volunteer, activist): 15